ACADEMIC CUSTOMS AND DRESS

The origins of many customs of the academic world are to be traced to the Middle Ages, particularly the eleventh and twelfth centuries when the first European universities – Bologna, Paris, and Oxford — were founded.

In their original organization, the universities were like medieval corporations or guilds. In fact the word “universitas” originally referred to any kind of corporation. The students at the universities were equated to guild apprentices, and so the completion of the apprenticeship was celebrated by a “commencement” marking the beginning of their careers.

In the twelfth century, everyone wore gowns. The social and economic status of an individual was shown by the extra features, such as fur trimming, on the gowns. Cloaks with hoods were worn over gowns for protection in bad weather. Degrees began to be awarded in the thirteenth century, and different styles of gowns and different colors came to represent the various degrees and disciplines.

Over the centuries the styles of dress changed, and by the seventeenth century, the wearing of gowns by men had virtually ceased. But the universities, particularly those in Britain, continued to be conservative and strict in the manner of academic customs and dress. At Oxford, for instance, candidates for master's degrees had to swear that they owned a gown and would always wear it at the proper times.

The first American universities were founded on English models. However, the wearing of academic dress was not universal and ceased during the Civil War. The custom was revived in the late nineteenth century, and in 1895 an academic custom code was adopted which, with modifications, is still used.

Most American universities have the standard black gown with the hood serving to distinguish the individual institution. Some American and European universities have adopted or preserved more distinctive gowns. There are three styles of gowns, distinguished mainly by the sleeves; the bachelor's gown, with long, pointed sleeves; the master's, with a squared sleeve, cut so the forearm is free; the doctor's, with bell-shaped sleeves with three velvet bands.

The hood is the really distinguishing feature of modern gowns, indicating the degree (the width of the edging band), the discipline (the color of the band) and the college or university (the colors of the lining). Today's graduates have hoods edged in white (B.A., M.A.L.S.) or gold (B.S., B.L.S.). Many faculty members will have blue edging indicating the Ph.D. degree. The faculty will be wearing hoods representing many distinguished institutions of higher education, e.g., orange and maroon for Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, maroon and white for the University of Chicago, red and black for Rutgers University, and navy blue and orange for the University of Virginia.

ACADEMIC HONORS AND SPECIAL AWARDS

Academic achievement is recognized at Commencement through a variety of honors and awards. Other awards were presented at the Convocation ceremony held on Friday, May 14. In addition, most academic departments sponsor chapters of honor societies which recognize student achievement in specific disciplines.

ACADEMIC DISTINCTION

The college recognizes the academic achievement of graduating students through the awards of Summa Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude, and Cum Laude, With Highest Distinction, and With Distinction. Students who have earned at least 60 graded credits in residence may qualify for the first three of these awards with the following grade point averages.

Summa Cum Laude	3.75 or higher
Magna Cum Laude	3.50-3.74
Cum Laude	3.25-3.49

With Highest Distinction and With Distinction are awarded to graduating seniors who have earned 30 to 59 graded credits in residence with the following grade point averages.

With Highest Distinction	3.75 or higher
With Distinction	3.30-3.74

FINAL HONORS

Final Honors are awarded at Commencement to students who achieved a grade point average of 3.75 or higher in their last 56 credits earned at Mary Washington College, at least 44 of which must be graded credits.

DEPARTMENTAL HONORS

Students may earn graduation with honors in their major subjects. Each department establishes its own requirements for honors projects or theses. All departments require that a student intending to undertake an honors project have a specified minimum grade point average in the major subject and a minimum grade point average for all work taken at Mary Washington College.

- 1995 Lewis P. Fickett, Jr.
Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Political Science
- 1996 Carol S. Manning
Professor of English
Director of the Writing Intensive Program
- 1997 J. Christopher Bill
Professor of Psychology
- 1998 Bulent I. Atalay
Professor of Physics

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

JOHN H. HAGER

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

John H. Hager earned an engineering degree from Purdue University, followed by an MBA degree from Harvard University. A dedicated athlete, he served in the United States Army and the Army Reserve, rising to the rank of captain.

Beginning his business career at the bottom, loading boxcars in 1961, Mr. Hager rose steadily up through the corporate ranks, eventually becoming executive vice president of his company. At the peak of his career, however, he contracted polio, the result of which has confined him to a wheelchair since 1973. Despite the severity of his illness and the debilitating effects of its resulting paralysis, he soon returned to work, continuing until retirement in 1994.

Concurrently with his highly successful business career, Mr. Hager has been extensively involved in leadership roles in a wide range of civic activities, including the presidency or chairmanship of more than 30 boards and commissions, notably the Children's Hospital and the Virginia Health Care Foundation.

As a director of the Virginia Chamber of Commerce and the Partnership for Urban Virginia, he has devoted much time and energy to the effort to promote technology and create new jobs for Virginia. At the same time, he has demonstrated concern for preserving the rich heritage of the Commonwealth and the nation through his service as a trustee of the Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation and the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts.

Mr. Hager's successful 1997 campaign for the state's second-highest office demonstrated the efficacy of perseverance and determination in the face of daunting obstacles. As lieutenant governor he serves concurrently as chair of the Disability Commission, in which position he not only endeavors to enhance opportunities for all Virginians, but personally provides a very positive and visible role model for those who endure challenges such as his own.

He and his wife, the former Margaret Dickinson Chase, were married in 1971. They have two sons, Jack and Henry.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

JOHN H. HAGER

Doctor of Humane Letters

THE EAGLE PIPE BAND

Performing at today's commencement ceremony is the newly formed Eagle Pipe Band. The idea of a band in the Fredericksburg area has been germinating for several years, and Mary Washington College provided the impetus to bring the plan to fruition. There is already a great deal of local interest in the group, which is dedicated to enjoying and sharing quality Celtic music.

Of special interest, and great pride, the Eagle Pipe Band was founded by Dr. Raymond B. Scott, Chairperson and Associate Professor of Chemistry at Mary Washington College. Along with Dr. Scott, the majority of the performers at today's ceremony are students at Mary Washington College. The tartan worn by the performers was designed by the College to match school colors, and is registered in Scotland's official register of tartans.

ALMA MATER

All hail, dear Alma Mater,
We sing our praise to you.
High on Marye's Hilltop
You stand forever true;
Born in truth and honor
You ever more shall be,
The model of our future years
And all eternity.

Whene'er we have to leave you
We never will forget,
The lessons you have taught us,
And all the friends we've met;
And we your sons and daughters
Will hold your name on high,
So here's to Mary Washington;
Our love will never die.
